4 STATEMENT OF FACTS

5 This complaint is based on the personal observations, investigation, and information
6 furnished to U. S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement Special Agent Hugo A. Leon.

7 On January 22, 2008, at approximately 1130 hours, Customs and Border Protection
8 (CBP) Officer S. Ceja was assigned to Vehicle Primary Lane four (4) of the Calexico, California
9 East Port of Entry when a 2003 white Volkswagon Jetta bearing California license plate 10 6AHU621 approached for entry into the United States. Jana Fernanda ANDRADE was the 11 driver and sole occupant of the Jetta.

12 CBP Officer Ceja encountered the driver of the Jetta, ANDRADE, and received a 13 negative Customs declaration from ANDRADE. CBP Officer Ceja referred the Jetta and 14 ANDRADE into Vehicle Secondary for a more thorough examination.

15 In Vehicle Secondary, CBP Officer N. Rojas conducted a cursory inspection of the Jetta
16 and tapped on the floorboard/rocker panels of the Jetta and noticed that the floorboard/rocker
17 panels of the Jetta felt hard and sounded solid when tapped. CBP Officer Rojas then pulled back 18 on the rug of the Jetta and saw brown postal tape wrapped packages.

19 CBP Officer Rojas discovered six brown postal tape wrapped packages concealed inside 20 the floorboard/rocker panel of the driver side and seven brown postal tape wrapped packages 21 concealed inside the floorboard/rocker panel of the Jetta. CBP Officer Rojas probed one of the 22 packages producing a white, powdery substance, which field-tested positive for cocaine. A total 23 of thirteen (13) packages were removed from the Jetta. The total weight was approximately 24 14.80 kilograms (32.56 pounds) of cocaine.

25 ANDRADE was advised of her rights per Miranda. ANDRADE stated to Special Agent
26 Leon that she understood her rights and was willing to make a statement without an attorney 27 present. ANDRADE denied any knowledge of the cocaine found in the Jetta, stating that she was 28 supposed to smuggle marijuana, but not until she had acquired a valid driver's license.
